

HUGHES ACCEPTS IN LONG SPEECH

After Formal Notification Republican
Nominee Assumes Role as Party
Standard Bearer.

ATTACKS WILSON'S POLICIES
President Is Subject of Verbal Abuse of G. O. P. Candidate in Acceptance Address.

New York, Aug. 1.—Charles E. Hughes last night outlined in his speech of acceptance the issues upon which he will conduct his campaign for the presidency.

Mr. Hughes assailed the administration for the course it has pursued with reference to Mexico, maintenance of American rights during the European war, preparedness and other great questions of the day.

He declared for a new policy of "firmness and consistency" toward Mexico, for "the unflinching maintenance of all American rights on land and sea," and for "adequate national defense—adequate protection on both our western and eastern coasts."

Denounces Hyphen Plots.

"We denounce all plots and conspiracies in the interest of any foreign nation," Mr. Hughes said. "Unflinchingly and tolerably is the use of our soil for alien intrigues. Every American must unreservedly condemn them and support every effort for their suppression."

The nominee assailed the administration for its "direction of diplomatic intercourse" from the beginning, declaring that where there should have been conspicuous strength and expertness there had been weakness and inexperience. He cited Santo Domingo as an instance where appointments had gone to "deserving democrats." He called the failure to continue Ambassador Herrick at his post in Paris after the war had started "a lamentable sacrifice of international impulse."

Indorses Votes for Women.

"I indorse the declaration in the platform in favor of woman suffrage," Mr. Hughes declared. And he added: "Opposition may delay, but in my judgment cannot defeat this movement. I favor the vote for women."

One-fourth of the speech was devoted to Mexico. Step after step taken by the administration with reference to Mexico was assailed, from the days of Huerta to the note sent the de facto government by the state department June 20 last, part of which was quoted in the speech. The seizure of Vera Cruz, the nominee said, "was war, of course."

"Later we retired from Vera Cruz," he continued, "giving up this noble warfare. Recently the naked truth was admitted by a cabinet officer. We are now informed that we did not go to Vera Cruz to force Huerta to salute the flag. We are told that we went there to show Mexico that we were in earnest in our demand that Huerta must go."

Peace, Only Aim in Mexico.

America, Mr. Hughes continued, had no policy of aggression toward Mexico, no desire for any part of her territory, but wished her to have peace, stability and prosperity.

"The conduct of the administration has created difficulties we shall have to surmount," he said. "We demand from Mexico the protection of the lives and property of our citizens and the security of our border from depredations."

Safeguarding American rights abroad had not been accomplished, Mr. Hughes said, by the administration. There had been "brave words in a series of notes," but "what does it avail to use some of the strongest words known to diplomacy if ambassadors can receive the impression that the words are not to be taken seriously?"

Blamed for Lusitania.
The nominee reiterated his declaration that had this government left no doubt that it meant to hold Germany to "strict accountability," there would have been no loss of life on the Lusitania.

Discussing preparedness, Mr. Hughes said it was apparent that the United States was "shockingly unprepared." "The administration has failed to discharge its responsibilities," Mr. Hughes continued. "Apparently it is now seeking to meet political exigencies by its naval program. But it has imposed on the country an incompetent naval administration."

"We demand adequate protection on both our western and eastern coasts. We demand thoroughness and efficiency in both arms of the service. It seems to be plain that our regular army is too small. We are too great a country to require of our citizens who are engaged in peaceful vocations the sort of military service to which they are now called."

Now in "Fool's Paradise."

Of the present prosperity Mr. Hughes said: "We are living in a fool's paradise." It is, he said, a prosperity brought about by the abnormal conditions of war. For the protection of the industries and workmen of the United States against the competition of "an energized Europe" Mr. Hughes said it was plain that we must have protective, upbuilding policies. Other measures, too, should be applied, he said, notably the upbuilding of a merchant marine.

"To make peace lasting and effective when the present war shall end, Mr. Hughes advocated the formation of an international tribunal to dispose of controversies of a justiciable sort, backed by the cooperation of the nations to prevent war before peaceful methods of adjustment end."

Mr. Hughes also declared for the "conservation of the just interests of labor," for conservation of national resources and for a national budget.

"Our opponents promised economy, but they have shown a reckless extravagance. It is time we had fiscal reform."

Bows to Roosevelt.

Mr. Hughes closed with an indorsement of the republican platform adopted by the national convention and a formal acceptance of the nomination.

A large audience which crowded Carnegie hall to capacity cheered for several minutes when Mr. Hughes appeared shortly after 8 o'clock.

The nominee, recognizing Theodore Roosevelt in one of the boxes, waved to him, and Colonel Roosevelt clapped his hands in acknowledgement.

BOY HELD SOUGHT BY MOTHER HERE

Leon Park, in Jail in La Salle County for Burglary, Object of Letter
Parent Sends to Police.

(Special to The Argus.)

La Salle, Ill., Aug. 1.—A letter containing a plea to take him into custody if he were found, along with a photo of Leon Park, was received yesterday by Chief of Police Doyle from Park's mother at Rock Island. The message stated that the youth had run away from home.

Chief Doyle immediately communicated with Mrs. Park informing her of the fact that Leon was a prisoner at the La Salle county jail awaiting action of the grand jury in October on the charge of burglary and larceny. Park is being held with Lawrence Walter of Mendota for robbing the Blakeslee and Matthews homes in Utica and La Salle last week.

A revolver stolen from the Blakeslee home was found in Mendota, where young Walter said he had thrown it while in that city. It was turned over to the La Salle police by Marshal Becket, who brought it here.

TALK OF DRASTIC MEASURE

Councilmen Discuss Plan to Provide Restrictions Upon While Private Homes Will Be Exempt.

A smoke ordinance for Rock Island similar to those adopted in larger cities may result from the petition received by the municipal commission from the employees of the Royal Neighbors' head offices.

Upon completion of the reading of the petition by Mayor McConochie yesterday the matter was referred to the council as a committee of the whole and the commission will consider passing a drastic measure, members of the council said. Only private residences will be exempt from the provisions of the proposed ordinance.

Employees of the Royal Neighbors' head offices asked the commission to take steps to abolish the smoke nuisance, pointing out several concerns near the headquarters of the fraternal society are not taking the proper precautions to abate the trouble.

An ordinance defining the duties of police matron and the one giving the fire department the right of way when making fire runs, subjecting the owner of any vehicle that in anyway interferes to a fine, were passed at the motion of Commissioner Liedtke.

Public improvement ordinances utilized the greater part of the meeting. Paving with brick of Sixth avenue from Forty-fifth to Forty-sixth streets was adopted. Paving of Twenty-seventh with asphalt between seventh and eighth avenues was adopted. Paving of Forty-first street from Railroad to Ninth avenues was considered. The estimated cost is $12,225.25.

Pay Local Company.

The Rock Island Lead Pencil Advertising company, which has contract for furnishing street signs, was ordered paid $100 on account. Thirty-two iron poles have been set upon which the street markers will be attached. It is expected that work of placing the signs on the streets will progress more rapidly now. The work has been delayed somewhat because of shortage of material.

PROVINE IS THROWN DOWN BY THE DRYS?

Friends of Representative Walter H. Provine of Taylorville, who spoke at the Rock Island chautauqua last week, are highly indignant over the action of the Illinois Anti-Saloon League in endorsing the candidacy of George H. Wilson of Quincy for the republican nomination for attorney general.

Endorsement of Wilson is contained in letters sent out under date of July 25, signed by State Superintendent Scott McBride. Friends of Provine have strenuously objected to the league's action, and the controversy, it is stated, threatens to split the league.

Both Wilson and Provine have been recognized as "dry" leaders in the Illinois general assembly.

An Appeal to Owners of Automobiles.
Several hundred autos are needed Thursday afternoon to convey delegates and visitors to the Knights of Columbus convention on a sight seeing trip through the tri-cities.

All friends of the order who are willing to offer their machines for this occasion are requested to notify M. H. Sexton at once. Machines leave Blackhawk hotel at 3 o'clock p. m. sharp.

Follow Your Nose

—It Knows

Ever watch an expert tobacco man judge tobacco? If you have, you saw him rub it briskly between the palms of his hands till the friction brought out the aroma—then smell it.

That's the supreme test. That shows what a tobacco really is.

Try it yourself—try it on TUXEDO—then on other tobaccos. Your judgment—as to what will please you—is as good as any expert's. Just do as he does—"follow your nose."

TUXEDO is the one tobacco that asks you to make this test because TUXEDO is the one tobacco that can meet it. Your nose will know the difference—instantly—between TUXEDO and all the others. None of the others has either the volume or the sweetness of aroma that proves superior and supreme flavor, mildness and satisfaction in the pipe.

Make the test—with as many tobaccos as you choose—and follow your nose. It will lead you straight to TUXEDO.

MAN WHO FOUGHT WITH SOUTH DEAD

Andrew Weinberger Had Been a Resident of This Vicinity Since Days of the Civil War.

BROUGHT HERE AS A PRISONER

Operated a Farm in Black Hawk and for Many Years After Lived in South Rock Island.

Andrew Weinberger, a prisoner from the confederate army who settled in Rock Island after being released from the union military prison on Rock Island arsenal, died last night.

Death came to him at his home, Seventeenth and Brashar streets, following an illness resulting from his advanced years. He was 76 years of age.

A native of Germany, Mr. Weinberger was born Sept. 11, 1840. He came to the United States in 1854 and settled in the south. At the outbreak of the Civil war he enlisted in the confederate army and was captured in one of the early battles. He was sent to the military prison at the arsenal island, where he was held for three months. Then he was released.

Instead of journeying back to the southland, whose colors he had defended, he remained in Rock Island for a year. He and Miss Margaret Meyser were married in 1864 and then they removed to Black Hawk township, where for 18 years they lived on a farm. They then removed to South Rock Island in which township Mr. Weinberger had since resided. In 1914, the 50th wedding anniversary of the couple was observed.

Mr. Weinberger is survived by the widow and 10 children, 29 grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren. The children are Conrad, Andrew, and George of South Rock Island; Carl of Colorado Springs; John of Spokane; Joe of Peoria; Mrs. William Rettig and Mrs. Robert Hall of Milan; Mrs. Sam Burgess of South Rock Island.

and Mrs. Arthur Flack of North Henderson, Ill.

Miss Eva Miller.
Miss Eva Miller passed away this morning at 5:30 at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Miller, 594 Twelfth avenue, after an illness of several months with a complication of diseases.

Deceased was born in Rock Island July 17, 1900. She attended the public schools and graduated from the Brown's Business college. Besides the parents, one brother, Raymond, survives.

Y. M. C. A. BUILT BY TRI-CITY MEN

Indiana Building Is Planned By Mc-Lane and Will Be Erected by Lorenz, Moline Contractor.

Erection of a new home for the Young Men's Christian association at Anderson, Ind., at a cost of $180,000, will be undertaken by P. H. Lorenz of Moline upon plans furnished by C. D. McLane of Rock Island. Lorenz was awarded the general contract upon a low bid in competition with a dozen other contractors, the plumbing, heating and lighting going to Indiana firms.

As the total cost of the plant is to be about $250,000, this is one of the most important operations in the Y. M. C. A. field this year. Mr. Lorenz says he will begin excavating for the new structure this week, and it is his intention to have it under roof before cold weather. The contract calls for the opening of the building in the fall of 1917.

"Survival of the Fittest."

A proprietary medicine like everything else that comes before the public has to prove its merit. It has to meet competition. The law of the "Survival of the Fittest" applies to this as to other things. The fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound after 40 years of success is still one of the largest sellers proves that it is a dependable, standard remedy for the ailments of womankind, and one in which they may have perfect confidence. Beautiful Bust and Shoulders are possible if you will wear a scientifically constructed Ben Jolie Brassiere.

The dragging weight of an unconfined bust so stretches the supporting muscles that the contour of the figure is spoiled. Ben Jolie Brassieres put the bust back where it belongs, prevent the full bust from having the appearance of flabbiness, eliminate the danger of dragging muscles and confine the flesh of the shoulder giving a graceful line to the entire upper body.

They are the daintiest and most serviceable garments imaginable—come in all materials and styles: Cross Back, Hook Front, Surplice, Bandeau, etc. Boned with "Washin," the rustless boning—permitting washing without removal.

Have your dealer show you Ben Jolie Brassieres, if not stocked, we will gladly send him, prepaid, samples to show you.

"Good for You!"

"I Say, Joe, that was some clout you hammered out. These 'homers' are the ones that count. That one of yours will sure 'sew up' this game. You think it funny to see an old fellow like me so interested, but I feel as young and frisky as a kitten. "BLATZ Beer is responsible—I've been drinking it for well nigh fifty years. It keeps me toned up and makes me healthy and strong."

"You fellows should drink

Blatz

The best
beer brewed"

George Stovall, for four years manager in the big leagues, in an editorial in the Kansas City Star, says: "And here's another thing that may sound odd, but it's true just the same, and every old ball player will tell you: a glass or two of beer after a game does not hurt any ball player—on the contrary, I believe it is a good thing. The player has expended a lot of energy; is hot through and through and a glass of beer will do him good. I've done that all my life, and nine out of every ten ball players who have played the game for ten or twelve years have done the same thing and will tell you so."
